PRACTICE SUMMARY

Clint Hansen is an associate at Fabian and has experience in a wide array of legal fields, including personal injury and products liability, real estate purchase and lease disputes, environment and natural resource law, and bankruptcy, among other things.

While attending the University of Texas School of Law, Clint was the Editor-in-Chief of the Texas Environmental Law Journal and has written an article entitled, "Save Our Right to Petition: A Proposal for Anti-SLAPP Legislation in Texas" that was published in the Fall 2007 issue of that Journal. He was the brief writer on a Bankruptcy Moot Court team which advanced to the quarter-finals in a national competition. Clint also completed a judicial internship with Judge William Wayne Justice of the U.S. District Court, Western District of Texas.

Prior to attending law school, Clint graduated cum laude from Brigham Young University where he had a full-tuition scholarship for academics.
